Adding VoiceThread to your Course

The University of Alabama has a campus license to VoiceThread, which allows faculty and students to share VoiceThreads with a class without requiring a separate account. Following the link from Blackboard will take you directly into VoiceThread.

We suggest adding VoiceThread to your course as a main menu item so students can access the link from anywhere in the course. Follow these steps to create a link to your course’s VoiceThreads:

1. Navigate to the “Content” area for your course.
2. Click on the “Tools” menu.
3. Select “VoiceThread” from the menu.
4. Give the link a title and description.
5. If you will be creating a graded assignment, enable grading for this link in section #3 of the setup page. We recommend setting points possible to 100.

6. Submit.
For more details about using VoiceThread within Blackboard, see VoiceThread support here: VT in your Learning Management System.
